

TACTICAL SURVIVAL KRAV MAGA ACADEMY

Code of Conduct

All students participating in a class, membership, workshop or course conducted by TSKM must agree to be bound by this Code of Conduct. TSKM reserves the right to remove anyone and revoke the membership or grading of any student who fails to comply with this Code of Conduct without refund. The TSKM Code of Conduct is subject to change.

A. Participant Understanding

Krav Maga is a close combat self-defence system, meaning it involves physical contact with one or more other practitioners in ways designed to simulate as closely as possible the self-defence options available to a practitioner when confronted with physical aggression and/or threatening behaviour. As in any other physically demanding recreational activity, there is always a risk of injury. Any student participating in a class conducted by TSKM does so with the full understanding that whilst it is the policy of TSKM to minimize this risk, the nature of contact physical activity prevents its total elimination. Bumps, bruises and small accidents do happen occasionally and this is to be expected. Students participating in a class conducted by TSKM do so of their own volition and at their own risk.

B. Physical Safety

Having said that, all TSKM students are expected to:

1. "Treat their training partners, as you would treat yourself."
2. Avoid injuring their partner by exercising duty of care - operating in collaboration and respect to help each other grow and develop.
3. Demonstrate self-control and self-awareness at all times and maintain all care in the application of any new technique. (i.e. when learning something new, practice slowly and carefully at 50% intensity. Only increase speed and power with consent from your partner.)
4. Any student, who in training exhibits behaviour that, according to an instructor, is a danger to other participants, shall not be allowed to continue training until the instructor determines the danger is no longer present.
5. Any student who feel unsafe whilst training with someone can make a discreet complaint to an instructor, who will make a decision to either a) observe discreetly first, or b) to ask the training partner to adjust their intensity, or c) ask the person to sit out, or d) under extreme circumstance ask the person to leave.
6. Have protective equipment according to your level. e.g. mouth guard, groin guard, MMA fingerless gloves for beginners.
7. Not wear jewelry, watches, necklaces, rings and earrings during training. If they cannot be removed, they must be securely taped over.
8. Not chew gum whilst training.

C. Etiquette

All TSKM students are expected to:

1. Be a respectful and dedicated student. Be a good training partner to fellow students. Attend classes when possible to enable progress.
2. If away for more than 2x weeks, please communicate to the instructor via text or email.
3. Be punctual. Arrive 5-10 minutes before the start of the session, so that they are ready to train when class commences.
(If arriving late, wait at the side of the room until the instructor indicates that a student may join in.)
4. Unless "on-call" for work or family, please mute mobile phones during training.
5. Not consume food and/or drink (water is ok) whilst in the training area.
6. Not attend training under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs.
7. Not smoking in the Training Area.

D. Club Ethics

All TSKM students are expected to:

1. Adhere to a healthy club culture: Be humble. Be teachable. Be disciplined. No egos, no posers, no 'tough guys', no unwarranted showmanship, no over-confidence (which can get you in trouble on the streets). You are not here to prove yourself better than others.
2. Remember Krav Maga is non-competitive. Understand we are here to learn collaboratively how to survive.
3. Be courteous and helpful to each other, showing the utmost respect to all instructors, assistants, visitors and guests.
4. Not act in a disrespectful or undisciplined way that could create a negative club culture, or bring the club into disrepute.
5. If you have a complaint, please direct that to our team of Instructors or Chief Instructor so we can address it, rather than complain to each other or fellow students.
6. Use only appropriate physical contact according to the training situation and necessary for skill development.
7. Not behave in any way that can be interpreted as unwanted attention, sexual harassment (defined as being where a student is subjected to unwanted/uninvited attention, unwanted contact or sexual behavior).
8. Our club is not a place to solicit, hook up or pick up, but to train. Anyone caught in behavior causing others to be uncomfortable will be asked to leave.
9. Not behave in any way that can be interpreted as discrimination or bullying based on sexuality, gender, ethnicity, language, colour, or other forms of differentiation.
10. It is also not a place for proselytizing, nor to promote or push agendas (be it social, lifestyles, politics, other products or services) of any kind that is not consistent with the primary purpose of TSKM, which is to empower people through self-defence training.
11. No patched gang members or gang affiliated members sorry.

E. Membership/Term Fees

Memberships are valid for 1 term, and cannot be extended into next term unless you were injured in-class or cannot attend due to some unforeseen circumstance such as an emergency, terminal sickness or bereavement in the family. Other personal circumstance does not apply.

Term fees are to be received no later than due dates on invoice. Regardless of your paying method, whether 1) upfront OR 2) weekly automatic-instalments, joining a term is an agreement you will commit to paying for the whole term you have chosen. This is an agreement much like a gym membership. Term fees are not refundable or pardoned if you don't show up. TSKM commits to providing you with classes, and you are committing to a term financially when you enrol in a term. Please understand receiving coaching is a partnership between student and teacher where timely fee payment is a sign of respect. We thank you for your support of what we do, and the service we provide in our community.

F. Hygiene and Presentation

All TSKM students are expected to:

3. Wear an extra clean shirt when using the TSKM club's body-armour vests during sparring.

I. Grading

All TSKM students are reminded that:

1. Grading days are offered at the Chief Instructor's discretion. Instructors can put a student's name forward to the Chief Instructor, and the chief instructor will decide whether a student is ready for grading or not. This decision is made through careful observation and consideration over several weeks. TSKM will then let the student know whether they are ready or not.
2. To pass a grade a student must demonstrate full competence in the grading level and show good understanding/memory of all techniques, mind set, physical accuracy and control.
3. In assessing a student, the instructor also takes into consideration such factors as respect, consistency of attendance, attitude, humility, cooperation, commitment, focus and attention during training sessions, as much as a student's knowledge of the Krav Maga syllabus to the level he or she wishes to grade
4. To secure grading a student must be a current financial member of TSKM and have been attending training sessions/courses on a regular basis for a full term or longer.
5. Grading fees must be paid before grading.
6. The decision of the Chief Instructor/School Director is final and to be respected.
7. If not successful in grading, we encourage students to not give up and continue training on regular basis until the next grading.

J. Personal Responsibility

All TSKM students are reminded that:

1. They are not to use the skills they are taught against any person, except for the defense of themselves, their family friends or innocent bystanders in the instance of extreme danger or unprovoked attack, or in the support of NZ legislative law and order. Any student found to be terrorizing, bullying or harassing any student or members of the public, faces immediate expulsion from the club.
2. The instructors are not obliged to teach any student that does not show the expected level of respect, attitude or commitment.
3. Failure to comply with this Code of Conduct can result in the full expulsion without refund or compensation.
